

Client Confidentiality and Access Control Policy

Firm-wide internal policy

Date	2026-02-10
Document Type	firm_policy
Author/Source	General Counsel
Confidentiality	internal

Least Privilege

Personnel may access client matter information only when access is reasonably related to their assigned work, supervisory responsibilities, approved knowledge-management functions, or administrative duties requiring that access.

Restricted Matters

Ethical-wall and specially restricted matters must be excluded from general search, knowledge repositories, and automated retrieval unless the requesting user is authorized for that matter.

AI Systems

Any internal AI or retrieval system must enforce matter-level authorization before client content is supplied to a model or external service.
