Andrea Mills - Supervisor

Mills said she had discussed deadline issues with Lopez before February but acknowledged that she first considered formal discipline in early March. Mills denied being angry about the compliance report.

Kevin Ross - Coworker

Ross recalled Mills saying the compliance complaint had 'created a lot of unnecessary attention' during a February 21 team meeting. Ross could not recall the exact context.

Dana Wu - HR Business Partner

Wu said she advised Mills on March 12 that any discipline should be supported by preexisting documentation because of the recent compliance complaint.
